

I urge you not to change the media ownership rules to favor more media consolidation. The independence of the media needs to be reinforced, not weakened. Please retain the current ownership rules in your vote on June 2.